

SOCIAL MEDIA

Historic Muscle Cars and Historic Saloon Cars encourage's participation in online social media in a positive manner. The accessible nature of the internet however, can lend itself to the posting of threatening and derogatory material in the heat of the moment.

Once your thoughts, opinions and comments are published to the internet they are visible to the world - and they are permanent.

Historic Muscle Cars and Historic Saloon Cars take's all cases of threatening and derogatory behaviour seriously and will treat online matters as it would 'real world' bullying.

Breaching the Code of Conduct or bringing the class of historic muscle cars and historic saloon cars, and/or its Directors, Coordinators, Auditors, fellow Competitors and others associated with organising or running the group, into disrepute online can lead to serious consequences, including tribunals, suspensions and the cancellation of the offender's Registration form and instant removable from the group becoming ineligible to enter further events

If you have questions about what constitutes acceptable content and online behaviour, please contact the class directors.